

As a missionary for Jesus Christ and with Awe Star Missions, you are expected to maintain the highest standards of integrity and morality.

You will be held accountable for these rules.

Cell Phones Regulations

Awe Star Missions is a discipleship ministry, we take this responsibility God has given us very seriously. We want to add value to every person God has put in our path. We want to add value to you by helping you grow in your relationship with Christ and teach you how you can add value to others. All rules and regulations with Awe Star fall under these four reasons: safety, cultural sensitivity, Christian witness, and spiritual growth.

This is a time of detox from the world, a time to focus on your relationship with Christ, and to be present with those around you. Staying off your phone helps you be able to focus on what God is teaching you, what is happening around you and the unity of your team.

Full cooperation is expected from all missionaries, and their parents/guardians when necessary. If you cannot adhere to the guidelines on cell phone usage, your phone can and will be taken and returned after the duration of the trip.
