

As a missionary for Jesus Christ and with Awe Star Missions, you are expected to maintain the highest standards of integrity and morality.

You will be held accountable for these rules.

Rules and Regulations

The Rules and Regulations of Awe Star Missions are expressly designed to ensure the safety and wellbeing of each team member, and to maintain the highest degree of Christian integrity required to minister effectively in a cross-cultural setting.

The enforcement of all aspects of these Rules and Regulations are the responsibility of Awe Star staff and leadership, including Country Coordinators, Team Directors, MOMs and POPs. Enforcement shall occur in a manner which is in accordance with Christian principles based on the Word of God.

Full cooperation in disciplinary decision made is expected from all missionaries, and their parents/guardians when necessary. The President of Awe Star Missions reserves the right to send home any missionary who shows disregard for any Rules and Regulations. The missionary will be responsible for all costs involved in being sent home during a trip including airfare, lodging, and meals.

There are four primary reasons for rules at Awe Star:

- 1. Safety – will this action harm anyone on or working with the team?
- 2. Culture – will this action culturally offend anyone we are serving with or anyone where we are serving?
- 3. Christian Witness – will this action discredit my witness or the team’s witness? Will it discredit the Gospel in the country where we are serving?
- 4. Spiritual Growth – will this action prevent or stunt my growth, or that of someone on my team?
